DETAILED ACTION

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The status of Serial No. 08/538,073, now U.S. Patent No. 5,685,995 on the first page of the specification requires updating.

Appropriate correction is required.

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 1-12 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-11 of U.S. Patent No. 5,685,995. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because Patent No. 5,685,995 discloses the apparatus limitations of the present application in the method claims of U.S. Patent No. 5,685,995. Regarding claim 2, computer control of a laser machining process is old and well known. It would have been obvious to adapt claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 5,685,995 to provide this to more flexibly control the process.

4. The claims are allowable over the prior art of record, other than the double patenting rejection above.
5. The information disclosure statement of October 28, 1997 has been lost. Please supply a new copy of the information disclosure statement with references as appropriate.
6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Geoff Evans whose telephone number is (703) -308-1653.
